Registered Massage Therapist opportunity in beautiful Nanaimo, BC!

We are looking for a friendly, enthusiastic and team oriented Registered Massage Therapist to be an integral member of our professional and passionate team. Our current RMT is fully booked.

Prime' Performance & Therapy is a therapist centered, tight knit family, consisting of a Chiropractor, Athletic Therapist, RMT, four Kinesiologists, two Strength and Conditioning Specialists, and three lovely front end staff. Prime' Performance and Therapy is a busy clinic, and has earned the reputation of being amongst the top clinics in the central island.

Prime' deliberately maintains a small-to-medium tight knit team; with all practitioners working under one roof, our layout encourages engagement, collaboration and communication.

Prime' is unique as we operate as an interdisciplinary clinic where communication between professionals is organic, allowing our practitioners the ability to deliver the highest standard of care. Prime's true interprofessional collaboration breaks the stigma surrounding the poaching of patients and focuses on optimizing the shared patient experience on behalf of all health care professionals involved.

As one of our RMTs we will offer you a highly lucrative 70% practitioner split, no long term contracts, and flexibility with your schedule. Flat room rental is also an option. Our current RMT is billing out over $8k/month, working 4 days per week! Payments are bi-weekly, including payments that have not yet been received from 3rd parties (ICBC, WCB etc). Here is a review from our current RMT:

"'Prime' is a great environment to work in; the whole family gets along great and the environment is always a positive vibe. All the therapists have a unique approach to treatment and we consistently bring out the best in our clients. The connected gym is an amazing asset as well, endless cross referrals and professional networks. I love the size of the treatment rooms, and the fact that all overhead and administrative duties are covered very professionally"
